To Hiring Manager,

It is with great enthusiasm that I submit my application for the position of Software Engineer Intern posted on the Career page and think I would make an excellent candidate for it. Please accept the attached resume. My background in this field include working in the Software Engineering sector, that your job description said a candidate must have experience in. In addition to this I have extensive knowledge of Web and mobile Development, and have considerable understanding of Object Oriented design and Software Development Lifecycle.

I was employed in a Software Engineer role where I was required to build applications and maintain its scalability. This is exactly the type of experience you are looking for in an applicant. Furthermore, I would like to state that I am keen to join an enthusiastic team and entrepreneurial company like yours, where I will work with people of the highest caliber. My project work experience in GPS in online shopping as a Team Lead helped me to build the communication skills and team spirit. I have been given considerable practical exposure through the curriculum by subjects like Software Engineering and Object Oriented Analysis and Design. As Software Engineer for prime software solutions, I have developed and maintained applications from design to coding and full implementation under the direction of the Senior Developer using Service Oriented Architecture solutions. Being a key member of my team means that I have been put in charge of providing coding and analysis relative to assignments, and performing unit testing on applicable code. In addition to this I am constantly seeking to improve my skills and am fully aware of the latest developments in the world of Software. Right now, I would like to work for a company like yours that has an environment geared towards performance, provides attractive career opportunities that values and rewards the contributions of its staff.

I would greatly appreciate the opportunity to schedule an interview to further discuss my candidacy. If given the opportunity, I am confident that I will be able to meet and exceed any expectations placed upon me. Thank you for your time, consideration, and forthcoming response.

Sincerely,

Rakesh Jain
